SUBJECT: NIO Seminars With the DCI

STAT 1. The next seminar is scheduled for 1600 hours, September 22nd. [redacted] and Howie Stoertz will concert to discuss the business of estimating Soviet intentions.

2. The following seminar has been scheduled on the DCI's calendar for 1600 hours, September 27th. The nominated subjects are:

STAT Korea: [redacted] will by then have had her meeting of intelligence experts and policymakers on Korea, which should allow her to focus on the issues particularly well.

The Approaching World Oil Squeeze, 1980-81: [redacted] will involve consumers, as well as intelligence experts, in the discussion. STAT

STAT Western Economic Leverage on the USSR: [redacted] describes this session as essentially an educational presentation by OER; few others have the expertise to participate.

3. Proposed subjects for future seminars:

The Horn of Africa: Nothing all that dramatic to present, but a dangerous area of the world.
